CISVA is seeking applicants for the position of Vice-Principal at Archbishop Carney Regional Secondary School (ACRSS), located in Port Coquitlam, BC. ACRSS is well known for its spiritual development, outstanding academic and extra-curricular programs and dynamic teaching staff. The successful candidate will become a collaborative member of the Administrative Leadership Team with the current Principal and Vice-Principal of this co-educational grade 8 to 12 secondary school. The successful candidate will:

- Be an active practising Catholic
- Demonstrate a commitment to Catholic Educational Leadership
- Foster a school culture that integrates Gospel values into all aspects of school life
- Have excellent interpersonal and communication skills and the ability to build strong professional relationships
- Demonstrate the ability to effectively network with all stakeholder groups in the school community
- Demonstrate excellent organizational, planning and technological skills for administrative and educational purposes
- Demonstrate a strong understanding and application of CISVA and BC Ministry of Education Curriculum, programs, policies, and procedures
- Demonstrate leadership in current instructional, curricular and assessment best practices
- Demonstrate a commitment to continuous Professional Development
- Possess a BC Teaching Certificate
- Have a minimum of five years secondary level teaching experience preferably in Catholic schools. This experience should be sufficiently broad so as to allow for effective leadership across a wide variety of domains.
- Preferably have completed (or be enrolled in) graduate studies

The position is effective September 1, 2010.
